

CRAFT BEER SCHOOL

In celebration of National Craft Beer Week, Redhook Ale Brewery proudly offers for the first time to the general public: Craft Beer School.

This is a very special program intimately hosted by an extremely passionate and experienced Redhook Brewer. It is an exclusive opportunity to go behind the scenes for a hands-on experience in the Brewhouse and Cellars and to taste beer at each stage of the brewing process. This may not look like Willy Wonka's factory but we assure you, Redhook has the golden elixir and proud brewers are looking forward to sharing their passion with you.

Spots are extremely limited—if you would like to be a part of the first graduating class and earn your place in Redhook history, registering NOW is highly suggested. Must be 21 years of age or older. Cheers!

EVENT Redhook Brewery Craft Beer School
DATE Wed, May 19
TIME 5:30 - 9:30pm
LOCATION Tour Gallery, Redhook Brewery, 35 Corporate Dr., Pease Tradeport, Portsmouth, NH
PROFESSOR Andy Schwartz, Redhook Brewer, Beer Aficionado & Super Beer Geek

TIMELINE Commence with dinner and imbibing and a craft beer history lesson before embarking on a behind the scenes journey through the brewery for each beer school lesson (as follows)

CURRICULUM Craft Brewing History – where the passion began and where it's taking us

Brewing 101 – learn the basics while going behind the scenes inside Redhook's state of the art brew house, getting up close with all the ingredients (see the process, taste fresh wort, smell fresh hops)

Fermentation – get immersed in the fermentation cellar—see, smell, and taste the beer throughout the entire fermentation cycle (actively fermenting, dry hopped, finished, and cask conditioned), and discuss yeast handling, dry hopping, and filtration

Packaging – Learn about the challenges of packaging great ales at the bottle and keg lines

Beer styles – sample the finished products during an in depth and personal explanation of beer styles
